Indications.
WASHINGTON, D. C., May 10.—For West Virginia and Western Pennsylvania, threatening weather and light rain, light variable winds, mostly easterly and stationary temperature.

St. James Hotel Sale.
The sale of the furniture of the St. James hotel was begun yesterday by Constable J. P. St. Myers. The furniture offered went well, and brought generally very good prices. Much of it was bought in by Mr. M. Reilly. The carpets and bedding will be offered to-day, commencing at 9 A. M.

The Season at the Park.
The Wheeling Park Association has elected Conrad Ulrich Secretary vice L. F. Stille, resigned. The association has a reasonable advertisement of the attractions of the park in another column. The park ought to be better patronized than ever before this season. It is an institution of which the community is justly proud, and of which kind she has too few.

The Wheeling Natural Gas Company.
The Board of Directors of the Wheeling Natural Gas Company met yesterday and unanimously rejected the old contract. This company's well on the Leach farm, in Washington county, is now spraying oil. Experts estimate that it is throwing out about twenty-five barrels of oil every day, and the company will at once take the necessary steps to save the product.

Superintendent of the Penitentiary.
It was reported last night on good authority that Hon. Ed. Robertson, of this city, had received or was about to receive from Gov. Wilson the appointment as Superintendent of the Penitentiary at Moundsville. Mr. Robertson received a dispatch yesterday asking him to come to Charleston at once, and it is known that Gov. Wilson had expressed his intention to appoint him if Mr. Peck was not confirmed.

Security of Freight Facilities.
There is some complaint at stations along the line of the Ohio River railroad down the river, that shippers cannot get cars as fast as they need them. The Parkersburg Sentinel calls attention to the fact that the car works which was building a big lot of cars for the Ohio river railroad, was burned a few days ago, and a large number of new cars for the road were destroyed. Other orders have been placed, and the work of providing increased rolling stock is being pushed with all possible speed, and it is hoped that there will be plenty of cars before a great while.

There was a terrible rain storm at Cumberland, Md., Sunday night, and the Baltimore & Ohio train from the East due here at 10 yesterday morning did not arrive until afternoon.

The Riverside furnace at Steubenville is making a fine record. It is now running on until the first of next week. If the Connelville strike is not ended by then, the fires will have to be banked.

An entertainment is to be given at Wheeling this evening by the Disciples of Christ school of the place. May O'Connell and Miss Anna Carson, of this city, will be among those from other points who will assist in the programme.

Clara Hook yesterday admitted to record a dead May 9, by B. B. Dwyer, special commissioner, to Emma B. B. Dwyer, in consideration of $1,345, for 11 acres, 2 rods and 26 perches of land on Short creek, this county.

FREDERICK ELIAS was yesterday appointed guardian of Frederick, orphan of Mary Elias deceased, and gave bond in the sum of $200, with Louis Elias as surety. Sophia Groat was appointed guardian of Dora Elias; bond $200; Charles L. Goetz surety.

It is expected that to-day will see the end reached at the McManis No. 2 oil well in the Taylorstown district. The development of this well will mean the cause of considerable speculation as to what its character will be. The Happer well is getting close to the sand.

GEORGE SMITH, the horseman, went to St. Clairsville last week with a lot of horses, with the intention of keeping them in the train and then selling them, but the Association had done nothing toward repairing the grounds, and Smith took his horses and left.

The McClure House will be re-opened sometime between the 15th and 25th inst. The new management, Scott, Grant & Co., are putting forth every effort to have the house opened just as soon as possible. The carpenters, painters and paper hangers are about through and the new furniture and belongings are arriving daily.

All the railroads coming into this city did a large excursion business yesterday bringing people here to see the circus. The largest crowd came in at the Ohio River Road, the Hempfield came next and the B. & O. local trains from the West and extra cars. Across the river the O. & L. W. brought in a large number.

THIEVES IN THE CITY.

AN ATTEMPT AT A BURGLARY
In South End Yesterday Morning Early Frustrated by a Watchman—A Stranger Claims to Have Been Robbed in a Market St. Saloon—Minor Crimes.

At an early hour yesterday morning Nightwatchman John McDermott, employed at the stables of the Citizens' Street Railway Company, heard a suspicious noise in the company's office, which is in the building, and going into the room he found three men, two of them white and one colored, attempting to effect an entrance into the office by way of a window which opens on the street. He watched them a few moments, when they changed their point of attack to the outer door, which they were attempting to force open. McDermott fired his revolver at them, when they dropped their tools and ran. The police were notified, but have found no trace of the thieves.

A stranger reported to Officers Watson and Dunlap that he had been robbed in the market square, of $18, while asleep. He had no idea who had robbed him, and therefore no warrant could be issued.

Before Squire Arkle yesterday W. H. Black, the colored man who was engaged in the market square, was fined $10 and costs. William Leo, charged with using profane language by Alice Paine, confessed judgment and was fined $1 and costs. William Paine was charged with using profane language by J. Jennings, but the case was adjourned until the next day.

A police court yesterday morning Mrs. Ransom Taylor, colored, was fined $20 and costs for keeping a house of ill-repute in Alley Nine. Two white men were caught by the police in the red were fined $5 and costs each. Grace Foster and Mary Smith, two white women, were fined $5 and costs each for being inmates of Mollie Taylor's house of prostitution at No. 1001 Cleveland street. The same women caught with the women were also fined $5 and costs each. Several attacks of Forepugh's circus were fired for a row in a South Side saloon.

THE CIRCUS YESTERDAY.
Forepugh's Big Tent Crowded—A Good Performance.

Forepugh's circus parade through the streets yesterday forenoon was one of the finest ever seen here. The wagons are bright and new and the horses, as usual, as fine and handsome steeds as are ever seen together in such a large number. The huge tent was filled at the afternoon performance, every seat being occupied, and the audience was nearly as large as at night. The evening programme was considerably abridged, a large number of the animals being absent, and the species of performance which Forepugh has a well-earned reputation. This was the only drawback to a highly creditable entertainment. The number of novel and thrilling performances is large, and the circus is a well-earned reputation. This was the only drawback to a highly creditable entertainment.

The Indian show is stopping at the Mount City. The object of the show is to advertise "Galvanic Oil." Bat ten cents is charged as an admission, which also entitles the purchaser to a bottle of Galvanic Oil. They give a pretty good show, and all species of performance which Forepugh has a well-earned reputation. This was the only drawback to a highly creditable entertainment.

The people of the surrounding neighborhood are taking considerable interest in the license question. It is the general belief that the vote will be largely against license. Mr. Wirt, the present County Commissioner, and Mr. Schuchman, who is thought they were seated in the fight started in Johnny Henrietta's saloon on Sunday afternoon created considerable excitement for a short time. So far as can be learned it was the result of whisky and politics. Guard Woody showed up in the saloon and started a row, but he said "a good run is better than a bad stand." During the fight John Manup cut Jimmy Johnston, of Belleaire, in the arm with a knife, and Johnny Henrietta got a pair of black eyes. Manup was severely injured, and the fight was justifiable in what he did. After the row was over the assaulting parties crossed the river and stayed there till dark. Several special constables were sworn in, but no arrests have yet been made.

John Zich has almost completed his new dwelling near Georgetown and will move there.

Thomas Hays is at St. Clairsville, where he is trying to rebuild the Patton house, destroyed by the fire of the 17th.

A number of witnesses and principals in liquor cases were at St. Clairsville yesterday before the Common Pleas court.

W. J. McClain yesterday took a number of his workmen to St. Clairsville to finish the stone work of the court house.

The tramp that played "One of the Brides" here Saturday night will play tonight to help the members get to their homes.

Some people who spend a good portion of each year on the Barr's Mills camp ground have already been there looking about.

William Cope and J. F. Loecoe, of Salisbury, were in town yesterday interviewing business men as to the prospect for success with another national bank here.

The first bridge just west of town on the Baltimore & Ohio railroad is being torn down and an iron one will be put in its place. The bridge builders of the company are here doing the work.

Thomas Cochran was burned by natural gas while lighting the gas beneath the boilers at the city power house. The gas had not been entirely turned off and had accumulated under the grate. His hands and eyebrows were burned off and some painful wounds made.

Among the amusements already promised for this month are the circus to-morrow, the Choral Society's concert on the 13th and 14th, an entertainment at the First Presbyterian church on the 13th, the Masonic convention on the 13th, a big celebration of Decoration Day, the Catholic fair for two weeks beginning on the 27th, and another performance by the "Chesteau."

Martin's Ferry.
Miss Jennie Gear has returned home from Steubenville.

Forepugh's show drew a large crowd to Wheeling yesterday.

Everything looks favorable for the completion of the water works by the first of July.

Fred Romal is still suffering acute pain from the cut received by a cleaver while cutting meat on Saturday.

Kennedy & White's ten cent show gave an excellent performance last evening, and will remain two more days.

Frank Bowman held the lucky number, 133, which drew the sewing machine raffled off by Charles Smith at Xenaville on Saturday night last.

Henry James was fined $25 and costs yesterday for carrying concealed weapons.

Mr. Koehndorfer, publisher of a Kentucky German paper, is in the city visiting K. J. Bagg.

E. E. Norris, of Dayton, Ed. Ward, of Barnesville, Treasurer Robinson and Auditor D. H. Darrah, of St. Clairsville, were in town yesterday.

Not a few of the citizens of Wheeling have recently become greatly excited over the astounding facts, that several of their friends have been cured of the most distressing diseases, such as Consumption, and all hope-suffering with that dreaded monster Consumption—have been completely cured by Dr. King's New Discovery. The order of the cure was as follows: long diseases, Coughs, Colds, Asthma and Bronchitis. Trial bottle free at Logan & Co.'s Drug Store, large bottles $1.

MR. KEENE'S "HAMLET."

A Very Pleasing Performance last Evening.

No better Hamlet was ever seen in Wheeling than that of Mr. Thomas W. Keene at the Opera House last evening. To say that it was perfect would be too much; but it had few faults, and these conventional ones, while the excellencies of the rendition were abundant, and were generally Mr. Keene's own. His characterization of the part is intelligent, dignified, pathetic to a high degree. It differs from the ordinary stage Hamlet. It impresses one as about the Hamlet Shakespeare would approve. An audience of good size—of surprising size considering the rivalry of the circus—received the play with enthusiasm seldom aroused by a classic drama.

The support is notably good. Mr. Frank Henjins of this city, took the dual role of the Ghost and First Player, and rendered both with ability which deserved the enthusiastic plaudits with which he was rewarded. Mr. Hagar's Laertes, Mr. Kent's Solanio, Mr. Hamlet's Ophelia, Mr. Gertrude's Claudius, and Mr. Polonius's Polonius, were all of the same high quality as the star's performance. Miss Agnes Arden (which by the way is the stage name of Mr. Keene's daughter) was a lovely Ophelia. Her impersonation being as fine as any ever seen on the stage.

It is a source of much gratification to Mr. Keene's numerous Wheeling admirers that he has entirely recovered from his serious illness.

Mr. Keene's daughter was a lovely Ophelia. Her impersonation being as fine as any ever seen on the stage.

BUCKEYES BEATEN

BY THE GREEN STOCKINGS
In an Interesting Contest—Dunn Pitches a Great Game, Striking Out Twelve Men. Wheeling Signs J. G. Smith, Late of the Hamiltons, to Pitch—Notes.

It was Dunn's day yesterday, and what a glorious one it was for him. He pitched one of the strongest games of the season, and accomplishing the wonderful feat of striking out twelve men. The playing of the victors was not marked by any brilliancy, but it was strong and steady. Dale pitched a good game for Columbus but was batted hard, Eliff, Nichol and Spidel each hitting him for two bases. Crogan, Nichol and Eliff carried off the fielding honors, the latter saving the day by a hot line catch in the seventh and a difficult running catch in the ninth, thus ending the game. Westlake's bold robbery of second base and long slide to that bag was a play that was loudly applauded, as was also his dive for the home plate in the same inning. Nichol's beautiful stop of a hot grounder in the ninth inning was a fine piece of work, and brought forth a number of applauses. The total score should have been 5 to 0, as two errors in the first allowed the visitors to score. It was in this inning that Columbus had a man on third with one man out. A long fly was knocked into the outfield and the runner was safe. The total score should have been 5 to 0, as two errors in the first allowed the visitors to score. ## A Base Ball Sensation.

New York, May 9.—It was asserted on excellent authority last night that the Athletic Base Ball Club, of Philadelphia, has been sold to a syndicate composed of Philadelphia lawyers. The terms are not known, but arrangements for the transfer have been completed. The cause assigned is lack of support. It was asserted last night also that negotiations were going on for the sale of the Metropolitan team, as Wiman was tired of paying out money for the support of the club. The sale may take place any day. Another startling base ball rumor last night
